OF TAXES HEREINPublished by Former Sheriff Who Calls Attention to Tax Laws.In accordance with advice received from the state tax commissioner, former Sheriff Percy Byrd in this issue publishes a list of delinquent taxpayers for the year 1912.Pursuant to law, nobody's taxes are carried as the sheriff now has no alternative but to publish the list of taxes unpaid. Attention of the taxpayers is directed to some important facts noted below:1. The object in publishing this list is to give notice to the owners of real estate and personal property that the taxes have not been paid.2. Delinquent taxes published today may be taken up at the sheriff's office for a short time without additional cost.3. The publishing of a name on the delinquent list does not exonerate one from the payment of taxes. It is a warning of what is worse to come.
The county court at the June term will appoint collectors to collect the remaining tax. This will make an additional cost.4. Taxes on real estate, after having been approved by the county court at the June term, will be sent to the auditor at Charleston, where they may be taken up by paying an additional fee.5. Examine the list carefully. You may have overlooked some receipt. It may be charged in some name other than yours, because the transfer has not been made. Real estate stands good for its own tax regardless of the name in which it is charged.6. Show this list to your neighbors.
Discuss it with them. Find out who pays the tax when not charged to the proper person. Notify them and me, and by so doing help a good cause.Very truly yours, PERCY BYRD,
Former Sheriff and Treasurer of Harrison County.

SALEM

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
SALEM, June 6.—Next Wednesday Salem College will close the most successful and largest attended year's session in its twenty-four years' history. The recent term has been marked by the growth in regular attendance, and by the high class of work done by the teaching force and by the close application to study and interest by the students. The 1912 graduating classes are large in number and of equal ability of any previous class. The 1913 class roll, with the course completed follows.A. B. course—Mrs. Cora F. R. Og-

July is on here and a mass meeting was held last night to launch the movement. Come to Salem the Fourth.
Mrs. Myrtle B. Moore and daughter, Louise, of Mannington, has been visiting her mother and sisters for several days.Mrs. Charles A. Schutte and daughter, Miss Nellie, will start for Chicago Sunday to be absent on a visit to her sister, Mrs. D. M. Alkire. They will also attend the graduating exercises of the School of Nurses of the Wesleyan hospital, at which her sister, Miss Maggie W. Davis, is one of the graduates. They will be gone several days returning by Wheeling and ill for several days.The Rev. Gregory Blakely has been at Mt. Lake Park this week.Prof. J. Walter Duncan, of Adams-ton, was a prominent visitor here Thursday. He is favorably considering an invitation to a good school position at Benwood.A pleasing farewell reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Wilt by the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, and choir a few nights ago. Appropriate presents were presented them. Mr. Wilt and family are moving to Clarksburg.

BOWLERS

Lose Sixth Straight Game—Umpires Neglect Their Duty.The Scholastic team of the City Baseball League, which was considered by some at the beginning of the season to be one of the best teams in the league, is gradually rounding into form these days and steadily gaining on the league leaders. By defeating the Bowlers in the game played Thursday evening it reached the five hundred mark and is one-half game behind the Elks, who are holding the second position, and three games behind the Goff Building team, the league leaders.The game last night was featured by heavy hitting, the Scholastics hitting hard all the pitchers used by the Bowlers. Beveredge, of the Scholastics, was accountable for five of the teams' runs, as he drove the pill over the right field fence twice in the game, sending one man across the plate in front of him the first time and two the second.It is up to the league president to have a talk with his umpires, and see that the evening games are run according to rules just the same as the Sunday games. Several evenings this week the umpires have tried to make a farce out of the games.
They also allowed the spectators to come on the playing field near the first base line and play ball or anything they want to. To make the evening games a success and draw crowds, they must be run just the same as the Sunday games, when a large crowd is present.Scholastics—AB. R. H. O. A. E.
